The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

DECENCY IN FEMALE DRESS.

Young girls and riper matrons need not go about robed like religious fanatics; but let those to whom a high-necked and long-sleeved party dress would be a grievous affliction content themselves with showing a modest rim of shoulder above their bodices. And let them not forget that well turned white arms can be seen and appreciated without of necessity being exposed clear up to the arm-pits. No fair young girl ever lost anything in the estimation of men, whose opinion is worth having, by appearing with neck, shoulders and arms chastely veiled in delicate lace or muslin, instead of exposing them to the promiscuous gaze of a public assembly.

We hoard away the jewel that we prize the most; we draw a curtain before the picture that we dote upon; we hide our most sacred feelings in our hearts; we veil the shrine of the temple; we hedge the lily about lest its whiteness should be soiled; we want to cover up from other eyes the things that are the fairest, the dearest, and the most sacred to us.

Oh, woman! the most sacred thing, the fairest and dearest that man has in this world, is yourself. And I hold that man's instinctive protest is the best guide in this matter.

And the feelings of the father, the brother, the lover and the husband, when his nature is unperverted, is that the arms that caress and enfold him, the bosom, which is the dearest home his head can have on earth, should be as sacred as was the holy of holies in the days of old Jewish rites.

A woman's body is the temple of her soul, and her soul's outward symbol. What we want to keep pure, holy, and undefiled, we do not expose to be the common bait for all the eyes of all the world, pure and impure to gloat upon.

The way in which men, as a body, act and express themselves, when brought face to face with this dress reform question, is inconsistent, unjust, and ungenerous to women, and unworthy of themselves as gentlemen; they think because a woman is not their sister, or wife, or sweetheart, that it is no concern of theirs how she demeans herself in this matter of dress. On the contrary, they seem eager to help push her into a false position by hypocritical compliments, and phrases of hollow admiration, which are as false and bitter as Dead Sea fruit, if she will but stop to analyze the feelings from which they spring, the motives which prompt them. Too much familiarity breeds contempt. No one knows this better than the man who watches over the dress and deportment of his wife or sister with the stern jealousy of an Oriental, while at the same time he blandly encourages the wives, and daughters, and sisters of other men in every species of license.

Women do not always know—the very young ones especially—that a certain dash and freedom in the style of dress encourages familiarity in the manners of men towards them. They too often follow blindly after the reigning mode, without questioning its meaning, or the effect it will have upon men's opinion of them. They feel strong because they go in droves, and in droves they dare to indulge in a style of dress in which any one woman would be ignominiously hooted out of society, if she dared to appear in it alone, and upon any occasion for which it is not sanctioned by fashion.

If men would but give up their abominable two-sided policy on this question, and act towards every reputable woman, whom they find masquerading in a disreputable attire, just as they would under like circumstances toward their own wives, daughters or sisters, as far as is consistant with surroundings and circumstance, this mode of dress would soon be driven to its rightful home—the haunts of the profligate and the lost woman.

For my own dear country women I have one wish, which has moved me to speak as I have spoken. Plain words and hard words to say, but words which must be spoken, nevertheless, and which are better spoken sooner or later. It is that they should be known as the most modest of women in dress and deportment, even as they are now distinguished for wit, elegance, patriotism and inate purity of character. Let the women of other countries belie themselves if they will, by a mode of attire which is in direct opposition to the dictates of their natural modesty, but let ours set a bright example in this respect to the world, and then, indeed, the nations shall rise up and proclaim the American women blessed!—HOWARD GLYNDON, in Packard's Monthly, for September.

A patent has recently been granted for a method of refreshing horses while in harness, which consists in making the bit hollow and having perforations in it. A rubber tube extends from one side of the bit to the carriage, and by pressing a rubber bag which contains water, the driver is enabled to refresh horses whenever he chooses without stopping. For saddle horses the water bag is suspended from the horse's neck, or upon the pummel of the saddle.

The proprietor of a cotton factory near Stockholm, Sweden, has purchased a large tract of land in Southeast Missouri, where he intends establishing colonies of his countrymen and to build factories, &c., which will give employment to 1,300 families. A portion of the colonists are already on their voyage to this country.

"Why," said Bob Pitts to Will Swipes, when he caught him drinking, "I though you had signed the pledge?"

"So I have," said Swipes, "but all signs fail in dry weather."

A LOST CHILD.—His Re-appearance After Thirty-Three Years of Savage Life.—Thirty-three years ago there lived in Lewistown, Logan county, a farmer by the name of Harris Hopkins, who had a child, a boy between three and four years of age. One day while the farmer was at work in a field some distance from the farm-house, the boy started from the house across the fields to meet his father. The last seen of the little fellow was when he left the house. Hundreds of people turned out to search for the lost child.—The river was dragged, the woods searched, rewards offered, but all to no purpose. After days of weary and anxious search the little fellow was given up by his friends. The few Indians living in that neighborhood were friendly and peaceable, and no suspicion ever attached to them, and the affair was forgotten or talked over as a mysterious disappearance. The Hopkins family at length left their old home and settled in Illinois, and up to ten days ago none of the old neighbors in Logan county had expected to see any of the members of the family again. The astonishment of the old settlers in and about the old neighborhood can be conceived, when, week before last, a tall man, browned by exposure to sun and storm, and speaking the broken English of the half civilized Indians, made his appearance at Lewistown, and claimed to be the child missed thirty-three years ago. He stated that a Cheroke Indian, wandering through that section, had enticed him from the field as he was going in search of his father, and carried him to the far West. The old chief had treated him as his own son, and having been taken away at so early an age, the memory of his parents and former life had faded from his mind. For thirty odd years he had lived as an Indian, and supposed that he was a son of the chief who claimed to be his father. A few months since, the chief, then high in rank in the Cheroke nation, and very advanced in age, found himself on his death bed. Shortly before he died he called his adopted son to his bedside and informed him who and what he was. As soon as the old chief was dead and buried, Hopkins came to Logan county in search of his parents, whom he found had moved to Campaign City, Ill. He, however remained last week at Lewistown to gratify the curiosity of the old settlers who had aided in the search for him thirty-three years ago. His reappearance has caused quite as much excitement in Logan county, as did his sudden and mysterious disappearance a third of a century ago.—Sandusky [Ohio] Register, July 28.

THAT WONDEREUL PRAYER.

Which? Why the one that your mother taught you. Did you ever think, short though it be, how much there is in it? Like a diamond in the crown of a queen, it unites a thousand sparkling gems in one.

It teaches all of us, every one of us, to look to God as our parent—"Our Father."

It prompts us to raise our thoughts and desires above the earth—"Who art in Heaven."

It tells us we must reverence our Heavenly Father—"Hallowed be thy name."

It breathes a missionary spirit—"Thy kingdom come."

And a submissive, obedient spirit—"Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven."

And a depending, trusting spirit—"Give us this day our daily bread."

And a forgiving spirit—Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who tresspass against us."

And a cautious spirit—"Deliver us from evil."

And last of all an adoring spirit—"For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen."

Now is it not both a wonderful and a beautiful prayer? Jesus, our dear Savior, taught it, and who could better tell us how to pray to His Father and our Father, to His God and our God.

A MASONIC PIN.—A good story is told of a confident individual, evidently well "read up" in the mysteries, who applied at the outer reception room of a Boston Masonic Lodge for admission. An eminent brother, who was quietly sitting there, but made no sign that he was anybody, requested the stranger to be seated, and he would send in for proper persons to examine the credentials of the visitor. "Oh! its no matter about that; I'm all right" said the applicant, making sundry extraordinary passes with his hand and contortions of visage. "That may be but I think they always examine strangers who desire to visit the Lodge," said the attending brother. "Well, I'm ready for 'em," said the visitor, confidently. "Glad to hear it—that is quite an elaborate breast pin you have there?" said the other looking with some interest at the big letter G, which the visitor conspicuously displayed upon his shirt bosom. Ya-as, that's a Masonic pin," replied the wearer, swelling out his breast. "Indeed—Letter G—well. I suppose you know what that means?" "Oh, yes, certainly; letter G stands for Jerusalem a sorter head quarters of us Masons, you know." The querist didn't know it, and the applicant, it is almost unnecessary to state, did not get any further into the Lodge.

A Schoolmaster in a Lancaster county public school was drilling a class of youngsters in arithmetic. He said to them: "If I cut an apple in two, what will the parts be?" "Halves!" was the answer. If I cut the halves in two what would you call the parts?" "Quarters!" "If I cut the quarters in two what would the parts be?" Answer (unanimously,) "Snits!"

THE FALLEN SON.—Follow him home from the scene of his debauch. He is an only son. On him the family are centered. Every nerve has been strained to give him the choicest education. Parents and sisters gloried in his talents. Alas! already are these visions less bright. Enter now the family circle. Parents surrounded by lovely daughters. Within that circle reigns peace, virtue and refinement.—The evening has been spent in animated conversation and the sweet interchange of affectionate endearment. But there is one who used to share all this, who was the centre of that circle. Why is he not here? The hour of devotion has come; they kneel before their Father and God. A voice that used to mingle in their praises is wanting. An hour rolls away—another has gone.—Why has all cheerfulness gone? Why do these parents start at every footstep? The step of that son and brother is heard. The door is opened—he staggers in before them, and is stretched out at their feet in all the loathsomeness of intoxication. "Oh, who shall tell the sorrows of a home made dark with sin?"

WOULDN'T BE SPRINKLED.—About thirty-two years ago there resided in the town of Hebron, a certain Dr. T., who became very much enamored of a beautifnl young lady, a resident of the same town. The Doctor was a strong Presbyterian, and his lady love a decided Baptist. They were sitting together, one evening, talking of their approaching nuptials, when the Dr. remarked.

"I am thinking, my dear, of two events I shall number the happiest of my life."

"And what may they be, Doctor?" remarked the lady.

"One is the hour when I shall call you wife for the first time."

"And the other?"

"It is when we shall present our first-born for baptism."

"What, sprinkled?"

"Yes, my dear, sprinkled."

"Never shall a child of mine be sprinkled."

"But mine shall."

"They will be, hey?"

"Well, sir, then I can tell you that your babies won't be my babies. So, good night, sir."

FRITTERS.—"In a warm contest, a number of years, since, for a seat in Congress, between that old prince of electioneers, John Taliaferro, and Col. Gibson, the former had been successful in obtaining the support of a numerous family by the name of Fritter. It was the custom at that day, in Virginia, for the candidates to take their seats on the court bench during the election, and to thank each individual as he cast his vote, the voting being viva voce. As the members of this family came forward and severally cast their votes, Mr. T., with a graceful bow, would exclaim, 'Thank you, Mr. Fritter. His opponent Col. G. who had not been aware of the great number of this family, stood it patiently until about fifteen had cast their votes against him, when, losing his patience he exclaimed, 'Well, really, I think we have had fritters enough; I am quite tired of them, and should greatly prefer some pancakes!"

TRUST NOT TO APEARANCE.—In Dresden there is an iron egg, the history of which is something like this:

A young Prince sent this iron egg to a young lady to whom he was betrothed. She received it in her hands and looked at it with disdain. In her indignation that he should send her such a gift, she cast it to the earth. When it touched the ground, a spring cunningly hidden in the egg, opened, and a silver yolk rolled out. She touched a spring in the yolk and a golden chicken was found; she touched a spring in the chicken and a crown was found within; she touched a spring in the crown, and in it a diamond wedding ring was found.

There is a moral to this story, and that is, it will not do to trust to outward "appearances."

In Arkansas, Elder Knapp, while baptising converts at a revival meeting, advanced with a wiry, sharp-eyed old chap in the water; asked the usual question, whether there was any reason why the ordinance of baptism should not be administered. After a pause, a tall, powerful looking chap, with an eye like a blaze, who was leaning on a long rifle and quietly looking on, remarked: "Elder, I don't want ter interfere in this yer business any, but I want to say that that is an old sinner you have got hold of, and I know that one dip wont do him any good. If you want to get the sin out of him, you'll have to anchor him out in deep water over night."

Two negroes jumped from a train running forty miles an hour, in Georgia, last week. One landed on his head, and at last accounts was combing his hair with a horse rake to get out some boulders it had accumulated in the process. The other struck his shin against a decayed stump and gave a job to the coroner.

SONOROUS—Lady (who is canvassing for a choir at the village church)—I hope, Mrs. Giles, you will persuade your husband to join us. I am told he has a very sonorous voice.

Mrs. Giles.—A sonorous voice, marm? Ah yon should hear it comin' out of his his nose when he's asleep.

The daily papers tell of the splendors of the gambling rooms of New York. If the gamblers are sumptuously housed as the reports would have us believe it is clear that a gambler's room is better than his company.

Rothschild and the Archbishop of Paris met at a public diuner sometime since, and arrived at the door. Neither wished to enter first—the Jew showing respect, the Christian tolerance. Finally, the Archbishop cried out: "M. Rothschild, you are the son of Moses; I am the servant of Jesus; you have the precedence of age. The Old Testament is more venerable than the New." And the banker went in first.

The Bedford Gazette.

Thursday Morning, November 11, 1869.

"OUR CONGRESSMAN," the Honorable J. Cessna, manufacturer of Postmasters and Internal Revenue officials for the Sixteenth Congressional district, has returned home. The Honorable J. is a member of the Committee on Elections. This is the Committee of which the Hon. H. L. Dawes, of Massachusetts, (another radical Congressman) recently said, in a public lecture, that no respectable man would be caught serving on it. But "our Congressman" determined to lend it respectability, by going on it himself. His connection with those reputable transactions in our State Senate, the foisting of McConaughy into the seat filched from Duncan and the supplanting of Shugert by Robison, invested his name with a wondrous luminousness. As a rotten mackerel shines by moonlight, so do the claims of Radical contestants to seats in Congress become transparent under the effulgence of the great respectability of the attorney for McConaughy and Robison. But we said "Our Congressman" has returned home. He had started for South Carolina, where the Committee on Elections had a little job to put up for the approaching session. Several Radicals had failed to get a majority of the votes cast for members of Congress in their respective districts, other parties having beaten them a few thousand votes, and it became necessary for the Committee on elections to interfere in behalf of the former. But, sad to relate, when the Honorable J. reached Washington, it was discovered that the last cent of the contingent fund had been expended and that the Committee on elections would have to go to South Carolina at the risk of not getting their expenses voted them at the next Congress, or not go at all. "Our Congressman," although burning with anxiety to re-establish the respectability of the Committee by personal participation in its labor, concluded that he would face about and return to Bedford. Much as he desired to serve his country and his party, when there was to be no fee for his services and the chances were that his expenses would come out of his own pocket, he determined to let country and party take care of themselves. Therefore, "Our Congressman" came home. Applicants for marshalships to take the census, please take notice.

THE LATE GEORGE PEABODY.

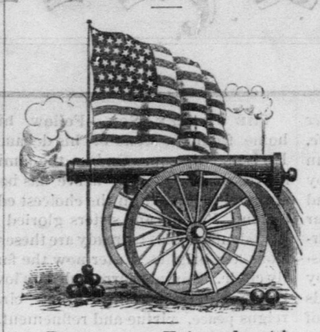
The death of the eminent philanthropist, George Peabody, which occurred at his late residence, in London, on the evening of the 3d inst., will cause the deepest regret wherever his name and benevolent deeds have become known. Mr. Peabody was born in Danvers, Mass., February 18, 1795, and was the son of poor parents. His early education was acquired in the district schools, and at the age of eleven he was placed as assistant to a grocer in his native town. In his sixteenth year he was employed by his brother as clerk in a dry goods store at Newburyport. Subsequently he removed with an uncle to Georgetown, D. C., where for two years the dry goods business was conducted in George's name, though at the time he was a minor.—He next engaged with Mr. Elisha Riggs, of Baltimore, in the wholesale dry goods trade in that city. The business under Mr. Peabody's excellent management rapidly increased, and in a short time branch houses were established in Philadelphia and New York. While engaged in the wholesale trade Mr. Peabody often visited Europe on business, and was frequently entrusted by the State of Maryland with important negociations, which were always conducted with signal ability. In 1837 he commenced to reside permanently in London, where he established himself as a merchant and banker. In 1857 he gave the sum of $300,000, with a pledge to increase it to $500,000, to found the Peabody Institute in Baltimore, an institution for the promotion of science, literature and fine arts. He subsequently increased the gift to $1,000,000, and more recently added to this sum $400,000.

Mr. Peabody also made munificent contributions to institutions in his native town of Danvers, Mass., also for lodging houses for the poor of London, and for professorships in Yale and other colleges; but his last and greatest gift was his donation of some two millions of dollars to the cause of education in the Southern States.

The memory of George Peabody will be revered through all future time and his generosity and philanthropy will, as the years roll around, never fail to awaken the veneration and gratitude of mankind.

"THE DAY" is the title of a new penny morning paper published in Philadelphia, by Alex. Cummings, Esq. It is independent in politics.—The editorial department evinces much ability and the paper makes a neat and handsome appearance. It is, in short, an excellent newspaper, filling a void which has long existed in the Philadelphia world of letters.

THE ELECTIONS LAST WEEK!



Democracy Triumphant!

NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND MARYLAND CARRIED BY INCREASED MAJORITIES!

Great Gains in Massachusetts, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota!

The result of the elections held on Tuesday, 2d inst., shows, at the same time, the vitality and recuperative power of the Democratic party and the gradual but certain disintegration and decadence of the radical organization.

New York has elected the whole Democratic State Ticket by majorities ranging from 20,000 to 30,000! Last year Seymour carried the State by 10,000. What is better, we have both branches of the legislature for the first time in fifteen years. The snap judgment ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment passed by the last legislature of that state, will, therefore, be repealed. All hail, glorious New York!

New Jersey, ever faithful New Jersey, goes Democratic by an increased popular majority, and elects a Democratic legislature which will reject the Fifteenth Amendment and elect a United States Senator in place of the carpet-bagger, Cattell.

Maryland, our Maryland, elects the Democratic ticket in every county, a unanimously Democratic legislature, and the Democratic State Ticket by at least 30,000 majority!

Massachusetts elects Claflin, Radical, by about 10,000 over J. Q. Adams, Democrat, and Chamberlain, Workingmen's candidate. Last year Claflin's majority was about 75,000. The Democrats have also some sixty members of the lower house, nine Senators and one member of the Governor's Council. Heretofore but few Democrats have been elected to either branch of the legislature.

Wisconsin goes Radical, as usual, but by a small majority. Last year Grant carried the State by 21,000.

Minnesota is in doubt, even at this writing. If the Democratic candidate for Governor is beaten at all, the majority for his opponent is very meagre. Last year Grant had 15,000.

Illinois elected county officers and members of a Constitutional Convention. The radicals lost heavily. In Chicago and Cook county, which formerly gave from 8,000 to 10,000 radical majority, the usual order of things has been completely revised, and the Democratic Citizens' Ticket is elected by 10,000 majority.

West Virginia elects a liberal legislature. The radicals are divided in that State on the question of continued disfranchisement of white men, as well as on the subject of enfranchising the blacks. The proscriptionists, or "Bitter enders," as they are called, have been badly beaten. The Democrats and "Let-ups" have a majority in both branches of the legislature. The odious registration law, by which about one half of the white men of the State were held in political bondage, will be repealed, and hereafter West Virginia will range herself in the Democratic column.

Auspicious and cheering results are these, yet at the same time they are a terrible commentary on the loss of influence of our own once influential but now degraded State. The time was when the voice of Pennsylvania decided for either party, New York and New Jersey were certain to echo the decision, and the Western States just as sure to endorse the judgment with an overwhelming vote. But not so now. The re-election of John W. Geary, notorious as a trickster, a corruptionist and a pledge-breaker, has so disgusted the thinking men of neighboring States, that they felt it their duty to show their contempt for the recreancy of Pennsylvanians whose lead they were formerly proud to follow. The watch-word will no longer be, "As goes Pennsylvania, so goes the Union!" Alas, no! The glory of the Old Keystone has departed, and will not be restored until her stiff-necked children turn from their evil ways and march again under the Democratic banner.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Philadelphia Inquirer states that the cost of taking testimony in the Louisiana contested seats in Congress, is over $20,000. The Democratic candidates were elected by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority, but it would never do to allow so many Democrats to get into Congress. Hence the "loyal men" in that body got up a contest and spent $20,000 of the people's money to prevent these Democratic representatives from getting their seats. J. Cessna had a finger in this pie.

THE FAIR.

In our last, we promised you some notes of the Great Fair for the Orphan's Home. We have visited it night and day, and we never beheld a more fairy scene than was presented in Horticultural Hall. At first you are almost bewildered by the grand and beautiful array around and above you. Then you are charmed and delighted with the music, the brilliant streams of light, the surging mass of fashion and beauty, and the elegant handiwork of tender fingers, and costly contributions of kind doners on every hand.

We do not know that more generous and substantial sympathies have ever been manifested than in this effort for the Orphans. And with pleasure we say it. Neither have any had reason to object to the manner in which it has been conducted. There were none of the scenes usually enacted at such places, as lotteries, chancing, and pilfering by ruse. The frequent ways of doubtful propriety, resorted to at such times for the purpose of getting off articles, were discarded, and gentlemen could bring ladies there without being pounced upon by harpies or pulled to pieces, in the name of charity by splendid beggars. You could spend your time (and money too, if you wished) without dread, and go home with a light heart, and, we trust, a lighter purse. There were four separate departments—The Fair room, the Restaurant, the Art Gallery and Museum. When you enter the first, your eye catches sight of the stage which is a scene of enchantment. The background is a rich Tropical view with surroundings of rare exotics and South American plants, presenting a life picture, such as we often imagine in reading books of Oriental lands. In the midst of these are the musicians discoursing sweet strains, and the effect is such as carries you back to the days of Alhambra. And now, on every hand, are tables loaded with every imaginable thing. And if any of your fair readers can mention an article or novelty in the fair line which is not here, we will give them credit for unbounded inventive genius. The first table to the right, as you enter, is a confection table where you can regale your taste from a sugar plum to a Dutch cake as large as a wash tub. Then we have Fancy tables of every description. One of silver ware another of paintings and statuary. The Floral table looks like a summer garden, and affords a pleasa at retreat from the crowd. There is a table from Easton, Rev. Ruthrauff, pastor, (formerly of Schellsburg) and presided over by his accomplished daughter. St. Mark's (Rev. Kunkelman, pastor, formerly of Schellsburg) has large and elegant tables. There is St. Steven's table (Rev. Hunt, pastor, and formerly of Schellsburg) and it is a gem. (What do you think of Schellsburg now, Mr. Editor?) Well, in a word, there were twenty four tables and presided over by one hundred and twenty-five ladies. As we pass along we come to "Jacob's Well," and of course you want a drink of that for the name of the thing. Accordingly you pay a little Jacob a dime and he draws you a—glass of lemonade! Bah! says the horrified Israelite. We come to the office of the President of the Fair, Mayor Fox. We congratulate him upon its success. "Yes," says he, "and I am delighted. But to the ladies belong all the credit—to the ladies." We know what we are talking about when we say that he is sensible and right. And just here is a good place to go off on a panegyric, and say some fine things about woman; but then we hardly have time, and put it off for another occasion. Our readers of the rugged sex can fill in for themselves. In addition to Easton, Bethlehem and Norristown and Reading were also represented. But time would fail us to tell of the goods, fancy work, paraphernalia toys, wax-work, paintings and curiosties found on these and all the tables. It was an endless maze of varied beauty, splendor and richness, and for two weeks were the ladies constantly and busily engaged getting off their stock. Much as there was, it gradually melted away, as snow in the sun, and that hall, at first crammed and packed with the work of kind hands, was left stripped and forelorn. Down in was a grand place for the followers of Epicurus. The tables night after night were crowded with a hungry throng. And flitting here and there, with waiters in hand, were scores of Philadelphia's beautiful girls. These pretty waiting maids naturally drew down cadaverous looking swells as well as portly men who devoured oysters and ice cream with such a gusto as put a glow of eminent satisfaction upon the face of the caterer. And what is the reason you always eat more oysters at night and with greater relish than at any other time? Now, suppose you add to them the spice of about fifty pretty waiting maids, and one of them asks you, "How many, Sir? Stewed or fried?" What would you say? Why about a half a bushel, Miss, both stewed and fried. And should you ask, "What else have you? She would answer: We have chicken in all styles, and cold ham, beef, snipe, reed birds, ham and eggs, noodle soup, sweet potatoes, duck, fish of every kind, tea and coffee and chocolate; we have boiled cabbage and turnips, potatoes and celery, pickels and pies, and if there is any dish that we have not, we will order it for you. And you answer: That is sufficient, just bring me them!

THE ART GALLERY.

You must not suppose that a Gallery is a place where you will see a lot of "galls." In the Academy of Fine Arts you will see some of that kind, and occasionally you will see a brace in this one; but here you are borne into the ideal and dream land, and find a fine collection of elegant paintings and rare statuary. For our part, we never thought there was anything inside of a house so near the divine as an exquisite painting—except a woman.—And here you have a grand feast of the esthetic. After the dust and ashes of the actual, you can let your soul slip out into the ideal and beautiful, and look thro' these loop holes into the grand and indefinable. That is a poor thought which can be expressed in words; and that is a very lean feeling which can portray itself with a miserable steel pen or goose quill. But in a Gallery of Art, thought gets loose and flies untamed, and feeling is wrapped up in itself so as to hold a divine commune with that which outreaches the actual. An Art Gallery is a sweet place, and no one can go from it without feeling that he is better and happier.

We cannot here run over the paintings and statuary. Suffice it to say that it was in keeping with the great idea had in getting up the fair. But we cannot say this much of

THE MUSEUM.

It was a regular "take in;" and yet every one enjoyed it exceedingly. It consisted of copies of Paintings, Statuary, &c., by the great Masters, Minerals, plants, Natural History Specimens, Curiosities, &c., &c. We can give you but a few of the specimens. We enter and take up a Catalogue and find the following:

1. Prospect of a Storm.....P. A. Rasol, (is an old umbrella.)
2. Last Lay of the Minstrel.....C. Hicken, (is a hen egg.)
9. One of the Andes.....after Church, (is a picture of Andrew Johnson.)
10. Way Worn Travelers.....Zaun, (a pair of old slippers.)
26. Horse Fair.....after Rosa Bonheur, (some corn and oats.)
30. Young Man's Horror.....D. Ropit. (a mitten.)
37. Mustered in } Companion Views. Sol. Dier,
38. Mustered out } (Mustard in a cup and mustard not in a cup.)
41. The Peace Maker.....Sharp, (a pair of scissors.)
53. More than a Match.....S. T. Rikeit. two matches.)
66. Sweet Sixteen.....T. Akem, (16 sugar drops on a paper.)

Among the portraits, was that of Fish, represented by a Scotch herring, and Kilpatrick by a veritable Irish shillaleh. And so thro' the programme of nearly 200 rare and curious things. It was well designed and afforded great amusement to the visitors. The "Little Bear" had an immense run, and was the cause of unbounded merriment. But we must close. It is gratifying to say, that the net proceeds of the Fair amount to twenty-three thousand dollars. On condition that twenty thousand were raised by the Fair, a gentleman of Boston pledged himself for five thousand additional. This will plant the House solid and give a fine margin for further effort. And so mote it ever be. The highest dictate of humanity is, feed the hungry and clothe the naked, and protect the poor and homeless. This great work has been accomplished by the General Council.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE IN THE CABINET.

An interesting letter of Chief Justice Chase to James A. Hamilton, son of Alexander Hamilton, has appeared in a volume of Hamilton's recently published reminiscences. Mr. Lincoln once said that he had no influence with his administration, and it seems from this letter that the influence of the Secretary of the Treasury, beyond his own sphere, in which he was all-powerful, was, also, not as great as Mr. Chase might have desired. The letter is as follows:

"WASHINGTON, D. C.,
July 15, 1862.

"MY DEAR SIR: Your excellent note is just received. I will send it to the President, and shall be glad if he will read it and heed it. I have seen little of him for some days past; when he thinks fit to seek my counsel or to impart his own, I attend his summons. Otherwise, I confine myself to my own special work. What I think ought to be done is so generally left undone, and what I think ought not to be done, so generally done, that I am led to doubt greatly the value of my views on any subject. "Your friend,

FITLY SPOKEN.—The outrageous swindle by which some of the democratic candidates in Philadelphia were deprived of certificates of election, has disgusted even some of the radical editors. The Norristown Independent, a thorough-going radical paper, in an article under the caption of "Fraud and Forgery," thus alludes to this disreputable business:

"We trust every republican journal in the will State censure with such terms of severe reproach as the subject merits, the gross forgery of false returns in Philadelphia, by which two democrats, who were honestly elected to office, were cheated out of the certificates of election, by an alteration of the figures. We trust the guilty parties, whoever they may be, will be brought to speedy punishment. Such rascals as have done this dirty work, bring the party into disrepute, and destroy its usefulness and power. Let them be spurned and kicked from all decent society. All the newspapers give the figures showing Mr. Diamond's election beyond controversy, and he should be allowed his seat in the State Senate, democrat as he is, in spite of the fraud by which he is deprived of his certificate."

Martin and Jno. Johnson, two brothers living in Marshall county, were making a settlement on Monday last, when a dispute arose over the trifling sum of ten cents, and this led to a fracas, in which John was beaten to death with a chair. Martin made his escape.

A Dubuque paper says: "While passing one of our leading hotels, we noticed a fair female leaning back in a chair with her feet upon the window sill, intently perusing a paper which we judged to be the Revolution. Of course it's all right; it only looks a little odd to an outsider,"

An extensive gang of counterfeiters, regularly organized for the purpose of manufacturing and selling counterfeit tobacco stamps, securities and money, has been captured in New York. Many parties in good standing in that city and in Virginia and North Carolina are compromised.

PRINTERS' INK has made many a business man rich. We ask you to try it in the columns of THE GAZETTE

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation, and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

Spell-bound—our school children.

Sour-kraut making is now briskly carried on.

The sweet, hazy Indian summer was of short duration.

Cumberland boasts of a new steam fire engine.

Money is behaving very badly. It is tight every day.

A great many of our exchanges favor the restoration of Spring elections.

Londonderry school district has built a number of neat houses this season.

The new Methodist church, in Johnstown, said to be the finest in the State, was dedicated last Sunday week.

Our waters are dotted with fish baskets, the law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Hagerstown Almanacs for 1870, English and German, for sale at the Inquirer Book Store.

The turkey we didn't get last Thanksgiving hasn't gobbled yet in our hearing. Whither has the bird flown?

There are 290,000 threshing machines in the United States, to say nothing of the "school marms" and the "old folks at home."

Girls are to wear low-necked dresses, and dandy male swells low-necked shirts, this winter. Undertakers are jubilant at a prospect of business.

In our marriage notices, last week, the name of Daniel A. Bortz, of Cumberland Valley, was misprinted. We owe an apology to our young friend for this awkward blunder.

Dr. W. R. Findlay, of Altoona, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic lodges of this district, in place of Mayor Potts, resigned.

THANKSGIVING.—The usual union service of Thanksgiving will be held in the Presbyterian church, on Thursday morning, 18th inst. Sermon by Rev. J. Q. McAtee.

Boutwell's financial policy is working well. So say his political friends. But the people can't see it exactly in the great scarcity of money, and general depression of business. 'Rah for Grant!

Street crossings are made to walk on. Some good folks imagine otherwise, and stop their teams and horses right on the cross walk, to the great annoyance and inconvenience of pedestrians. Horses should be stopped on one side.

Now that the long winter evenings are approaching, our young people throughout the country should organize debating clubs and literary societies. If properly conducted they will improve the mind, and be a source of interest and amusement.

SNOW.—On Sunday last, snow fell to the depth of several feet—we mean very small feet, of course—and winter in stern reality, seemed to be upon us. While nature without looked bleak and dreary, human nature within doors hugged closely the warm stove, the best companion on a wintry day.

The good days promised us by Grant's election, have really come in the shape of great financial depression, dull markets, poor employment for labor and the hardest times generally that have been felt since the great crash of 1857. People of Bedford county, how do you like it?

Eastern capitalists have been here, for some weeks past, looking after our valuable ore and other mineral lands. A great many have been purchased by them, which looks as though they meant business. With proper railroad facilities, the mineral wealth of Bedford county would be opened up to an astonishing extent.

POOR HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—The Directors of the Poor, at their regular meeting, on Wednesday last, re-appointed the following persons for the ensuing year:—Steward, Samuel Defibaugh; Physcian, Dr. F. C. Reamer; Miller. Joseph E. Wills. Maj. A. J. Sansom was appointed Clerk vice W. C. Schaffer, Esq., resigned.

Maj. Dibert has sold out the lease, furniture, &c., of the Washington Hotel, to Mr. George Murray, of New York, who has already taken charge of that house. The Major kept an excellent hotel, and, no doubt, his successor, who has a large experience in hotel keeping, will keep up the reputation of the Washington.

Those of our delinquents who will be present at court, next week, will do well to remember that we must have money. The yellow slip on the GAZETTE tells plainly to what date the subscription has been paid. Those who are in arrears can thus easily see how much is due us, and come prepared to help us along. If we could get along without money we would not make this appeal to our subscribers. We trust that those who owe us will see it in that light.

FANCY VERSUS FACT.—Somebody whose imagination outruns the facts in the case, thus tells what he would do if he was a local editor:

If I was lokle editor,
Wouldn't I have a time?
I wouldn't print a cussed word
For lessen $1 a line.

I'd git my grub & liker fre,
& tickets to the shows,
I wouldn't pay for buggy higher,
& wouldn't I ware good cloze?

LET HER GO.—The young lady who rises early, rolls up her sleeves and walks into the kitchen to get breakfast, or assist in so doing, and afterwards, with cheerfullness and sunny smiles, puts the house in order without the assistance of mother, is worth a thousand parlor beauties, who, for want of exercise, complain of ennui and lougne in luxurious ease. The former will make a good wife and render home a paradise; the latter is a useless piece of furniture, and will, to the annoyance of the household, go whining to the grave. Let her go.

TUMOR REMOVED.—On the 28th ult., Dr. Watson, assisted by Dr. Anderson, both of this place, performed a surgical operation on a young man from Somerset county, named Oldham, by removing a fibrous tumor from the neck, in close proximity to the external carotid artery. Numerous blood vessels ran into the tumor and a branch of the carotid artery nourished and enhanced its rapid growth. Being thus closely situated to the vital organs, the undertaking was a very delicate one and thoroughly tested the skill of the surgeon. The operation was performed in about 20 minutes and Mr. Oldham is now doing well.

STRUCK OIL.—A Bedford County Oil Company in Luck.—A telegram was received by one of our citizens, on last Saturday, stating that a flowing well of 50 barrels had been struck, near Parker's Landing, on the property of the Stump Islands Oil Company, organized in this place, in 1864. Another well is down and will be tested this week. The indications are that this one, too, will be a good well. This is quite comfortable news to the stockholders of the Company. While speaking of this matter, we cannot refrain from saying that to the President, William Hartley, Esq., this success must be mainly attributed. Mr. Hartley always mantained that the territory owned by this company was as good as any found in the oil regions, and was untiring in his efforts to have the same properly tested. A few more such strikes will make the stock a paying institution.

MAN KILLED.—A very sad occurrence took place at Huntingdon one day last week, resulting in the death of a young man named Miles Hampson, from a blow received from another young man named Howard Crewitt. A difficulty existed between them for some time, and on the evening of the fatal occurrence, Crewitt called at the store where Hampson was clerking, and the quarrel was renewed. After some words, the two agreed to go out and settle the matter. In a short time they returned, Hampson having received a severe cut on the head with—as he alleged—an instrument in the hands of Crewitt. His wound was dressed, and no inconvenience was experienced until a few days after when inflammation of the brain took place terminating in his death. Upon examination, it was found that the skull had been broken. Crewitt was held in $5,000 bail to answer at Court.

VALUABLE ORE VEIN IN CUMBERLAND VALLEY.—Mr. William Karns, who has been prospecting for ore, for some time, in Cumberland valley, from the western part of Bedford Southward, informs us that he has found the vein, which has long been known as cropping out at Boydstown, to be 4 feet thick on the lands of William Dunkle 2 miles South of town. A shaft sunk 7 feet deep shows 4 feet of the very best fossil ore and unusually clean and pure, there being no sand or other admixture. One mile further south the vein crops out 8 feet in thickness. At Strominger's, five miles South of town and three and a half miles from the Bedford Spings the vein is about 8 feet thick, with a perpendicular breast of 300 feet by actual measurement. From this point to the narrows below Bedford, on the line of the Bedford and Hopewell railroad, as projected, a distance of 5 or 6 miles, there is a gradual slope that will admit of carrying the ore down without the aid of engines. The advantages for the erection of furnaces and manufacture of iron at this point will be unsurpassed. The attention of capitalists should be called to it at once. A better day is dawning for Bedford county than she has ever known if the people will only seize the golden moment of opportunity. The completion of the railroad from Mt. Dallas to this point is absolutely necessary, at the earliest possible moment.—Inq.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—A splendid Christmas number. This favorite periodical for ladies improves with every issue. Its reliable fashions, its numerous full-sized patterns, its admirable illustrations, and great variety of useful and interesting reading matter, render it by far the most desirable magazine of the day, and in fact indispensable to the ladies living away from the metropolitan centers. It is also the cheapest magazine at $3 per annum, with a handsome premium, which, for a limited time, may, we see, be a large and magnificently engraved copy of Lillie M. Spencer's "Fourth of July Pic-Nic"—a picture worth three times the cost of the magazine. Published at 838 Broadway, New York.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This sprightly juvenile is constantly improving. A new and most interesting feature consists of a beautiful chromo series of Audubon's American birds, each separate picture of which is fit to frame, and together would form a charming set for a child's room. "Our Paris doll," accompanied by a letter to the little ones, by Mme. Demorest, is another great feature, not to speak of the special Christmas attractions and novelties, and a new story by the author of "Jack and Rosy." Altogether the December number ought to be good for ten thousand additional subscribers to Young America. $1.50 with a beautiful premium. Publication office, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

No intelligent citizen should be without his county paper

COME UP.—We desire to impress upon the minds of those indebted on our books that we are in great need of the small sums belonging to us that are now being carried around in the pockets of other people. We dislike dunning, and if those who are indebted to us would only come forward and pay what they owe, there would be no occasion for us calling upon our debtors or being called on by our creditors.

One Sunday afternoon a lad, so lazy in his motions that he did not get to the church door till the congregation were coming out, said to the first man he met, "What! is it done?" "No," said the man, "it is all said, but I think it will be a long time before it will be done."

COLBURN'S PATENT
RED JACKET AXE.
Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:— Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16. 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more that. this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhoea or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power
